

PWPL1 - Workplace Leadership

In workplaces all over New Zealand, there is a drive to improve performance – to obtain better quality and greater productivity. To do so is essential for national and international success in a highly competitive global market – for many, it's simply a must for organisational survival.

This workshop covers the following topics:

Section 1: Leadership

- Leadership
- Types of Leadership
- Change Leadership
- Theories of Leadership
- Factors affecting Leadership Style

Section 2: The Role of Leadership

- Role of Leaders in Business
- Barriers to effective leadership
- Behaviour Profiles and Leadership
- Leader Feedback

Section 3: Managing Work

- Task Management
- Prioritising Strategies
- Task Management Tools
- Daily Work Cycle
- Standard Work

Section 4: Engaging the Workforce

- The Changing Workforce
- Workplace Influence on Various Generations
- Engagement Goals
- Requirement for Success
- Strategy & Communication
- Measurements & Expected Results

This workshop is suitable for Managers, Supervisors and Team Leaders.

Benefits:

- It forms the foundation for becoming an effective leader
- Provides the participants to understand the challenges of being a leader
- Provides ammunition to the participants to manage themselves and engage multi-generational workforce

This workshop can be linked to the following unit standards:

21519 (Level 4, credits 8) – Lead change in a CM organisation

21532 (Level 5, Credits 15) – Manage people relationships in a CM organisation

Contact Productivity Institute to book your workshop(s) or for further information